

University News

Latest News

Published by Communications and Development

UC mathematician Dr Bill Baritomba has just the right formula to get people dancing.

12 April 2005

Pro-Vice-Chancellor \(Engineering\) elected IPENZ Deputy President

University of Canterbury Pro-Vice-Chancellor (Engineering) Professor Peter Jackson has been elected the Deputy President of the Institution of Professional Engineers (IPENZ) Board.

11 April 2005

Autumn Graduation 2005 this week

A computer scientist sometimes referred to as the Gridfather and one of New Zealand's most inventive, forceful and prodigious artists will be among those honoured when town meets gown this Wednesday and Friday for the University of Canterbury's Autumn capping ceremonies.

11 April 2005

UC to honour the "Gridfather" of the computing world

A University of Canterbury alumnus who has become one of the world's leading computer scientists will receive an honorary doctorate during the University's graduation celebrations this week.

8 April 2005

UC's Super Nose crosses the Tasman

Australia's major seaports will soon have the most advanced container toxicity screening in the world thanks to award winning technology developed by University of Canterbury researchers.

7 April 2005